

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 5, 2010

Mr. Hunter Lussi
9700 Kensington Parkway
Kensington, Maryland 20895

Dear Mr. Lussi:

Thank you for contacting President Barack Obama to request a Presidential proclamation. The President is grateful to hear from thousands of Americans each day, and we appreciate your interest.

Throughout our Nation's history, Presidential proclamations have recognized historic events and occasions, highlighted important issues, and celebrated individuals who have impacted the American story. On behalf of the President, we have enclosed the Presidential proclamation you requested, and we hope you enjoy this memento.

Again, thank you for writing. For more information about President Obama and his Administration, please visit: www.WhiteHouse.gov.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth H. Olson
Acting Director
Office of Presidential Correspondence
